The Women and Gender in the World Cluster
In conjunction with the Davis Humanities Institute
Present the Spring Workshop

Women’s and Gender Scholarship in Global Contexts: The State of the Campus, The Future of Collaboration

Corrie Decker
History Department

Alessa Johns
English Department

Jenny Kaminer
Russian Department

Tuesday, May 5, 1:10-2:10pm, in Voorhies 228
University of California, Davis

How does interdisciplinary collaboration shape research and teaching on studies of women and gender across the globe? This workshop engages an interdisciplinary panel of scholars to address the implications of transnational perspectives for their research and teaching on women and gender. Refreshments Served.

To register and for more information please visit:
https://uswomenandgenderhistory.wordpress.com/spring-2015-workshop/